NEWS ANNOUNCEMENT For Immediate Release

AQUBANC ADVISORS HELP NON-PROFITS

Buffalo Grove, IL – August 1, 2005 – Aqubanc, LLC of Buffalo Grove, IL, a leading provider of Check and Form Processing Solutions for non-profits and organizations announces the appointment of two Aqubanc Advisors: William C. Finley and Lisa Jermain.

“We are overjoyed with the enthusiasm and commitment that Bill and Lisa are making to help non-profits and organizations understand. Each advisor is a leader or pioneer within their field, and, the advice they give is based on their experience and knowledge”, states Jim Cowen, CEO, Aqubanc, “we believe everyone benefits: the non-profit, the advisor and Aqubanc. Each advisor is a volunteer, so their views can remain unbiased.”

William C. Finley had a successful commercial career before he was called to service for his second career: help over 150 ministries and Rescue Missions gain access to all aspects of donor development, fund raising and stewardship. Bill established a service bureau to support ministries and just recently retired from SofTrek, developer of PledgeMaker™ fund raising software.

Lisa Jermain calls herself the “Grandmother of ARC (Accounts Receivable Check Conversion)” because she led the effort to launch the first ARC pilot in the country while she was Senior Manager for Cash Management Services at Thrivent Financial for Lutherans. Before joining Thrivent, Lisa spent 9 years in with Bank of America and M&I Bank. Lisa is a Certified Treasury Professional and an Accredited ACH Professional. She remains keenly aware of the needs, issues and challenges facing non-profits as check systems continue to evolve.
